DAMAGED BY ICE FLOE.

Sch. George Parker Has Hard Time on Funks.

AT ST. JOHN'S TO REPAIR.

Stern Split and Damage Below Water Line.

Sch. George Parker of Boston, Capt. Albert Flygore, was at St. John's, N. F., recently for an anchor and to make repairs. The Parker is engaged in the flitch-halibut fishery on Bacalieu Bank, and was fishing at about 59 degrees north latitude off the Funks, when about three weeks ago at night, during a heavy snow storm, she was beset by very heavy loose ice and had a hard time of it knocking about among the "growlers," some of which hit her with great force, splitting the stern, starting the planks under the water line and doing other damage, so that it was found necessary to run to St. John's for repairs. She found fish scarce and has about 65,000 lbs. on board. She spoke the schs. Monitor, Margaret and Puritan, the latter commanded by Capt. Flygore's brother, about a week ago and they report fish scarce.

AT NEWPORT.

Four Seiners There Today with Fresh Mackerel.

Mackerel Season Over at Magda- lene Islands.

A special to the TIMES from its Newport correspondent reports the following arrivals here today:

Sch. Grayling, 94 barrels fresh mackerel.

Sch. Bertha and Pearl, 66 barrels fresh mackerel.

Sch. Rival, 103 barrels fresh mackerel.

Sch. Leander F. Gould, 50 barrels fresh mackerel.

Fourteen hundred and eighty-seven barrels of salt mackerel arrived at Boston from Halifax, N. S., yesterday.

Sch. Rebecca, which arrived at Boston yesterday, had 50 barrels of salt mackerel, which were bought by the Gloucester Mackerel Company at $15 per barrel.

Mackerel fishing at the Magdalene Islands is over on account of scarcity of fish and bad weather.

Large numbers of dogfish have appeared in Barnstable Bay and the mackerel dragging fleet is unable to catch any mackerel. The fishermen say the dogfish have come so close inshore as to drive the mackerel many miles out to sea, instead of sending them inshore as in former years. The Green Harbor mackerel fleet has had little luck this season.

BEST ONE YET.

New Sch. Fannie Belle Atwood Stocks $38,000.

Maiden Trip Which Will Long Be Remembered.

The new sch. Fanny Belle Atwood, Capt. Henry Atwood, of this port, which landed her big shack fare at Boston on Monday, stocked $5800 on the same. This is the largest stock made on a shack trip this season and is also one of the best on record.

The fact that this was made on the maiden trip of this new craft augurs well for her success, especially as her commander, Capt. Atwood, is well known to be one of the shining lights in the brilliant galaxy of the steadily rising company of young, energetic and able master mariners.

TO CELEBRATE THE FOURTH.

Sch. Kentucky Arrived with Another Fine Fare.

NETTERS DID LITTLE TODAY.

Capt. Prior Reports Fish Wild and in Small Schools.

Capt. Elroy Prior and crew of sch. Kentucky came home today to celebrate the glorious Fourth, and they will have something to celebrate on, for the craft has 275 barrels of salt mackerel and the first offer therefor was $15 per barrel.

The Kentucky stocked over $5000 on her Cape Shore trip and with the proceeds of this fare added will have probably the second largest stock of the seining fleet and this in spite of the fact that Capt. Prior did not go south, making $3000 on two shack trips while the fleet were out there and then fitting out for seining when Cape Shore time came. It is hard to find the equal of Capt. Prior as an all around fisherman, for he is equally at home and does equally well at any branch of fishing.

The fare was caught between No Man's Land and South Shoal lightship, one haul of 175 barrels being made when Capt. Jacobs got his big trip. Since then Capt. Prior reports that the fish were wild and in small schools, about as they were off here a few days ago. He picked up the other 100 barrels of his fare from these small schools.

|| Capt. Prior states that very few of the fleet have salted any fish. On Sunday last there was a lot of fish showing and a man could set almost any kind of a school he had a mind to pick out, but the fish were so very wild that but few catches were made. Since then the fish showed only in small schools.

Capt. Prior was of the opinion that the fish would be on the shore this season as none had been taken on Georges as yet and it was getting along later than last year when big hauls were made there.

Sch. Maud S. arrived at Portland yesterday with 250 barrels salt mackerel.

The spring catch of mackerel in Chebucto Bay, N. S., amounted to about 10,000 barrels, over half of which were salted. Buyers from this city, Boston and New York have been there and bought most of them.

The fare of salt mackerel of sch. Rebecca was sold to the Knowles Freeman Fish Co. of Boston at $14.50 per barrel.

Five barrels of Prince Edward Island mackerel, the first of the season, reached Boston yesterday. They went 140 count and were of fine color.

Sch. Leander F. Gould at Newport yesterday had 50 barrels of salt mackerel in addition to her fresh fare.

The fare of sch. James S. Steele sold to George Perkins & Son at $15 1-8 per barrel.

At Boston today from off Race Point are sch. Emerald, 16 barrels fresh mackerel; steamer Vigilant 60 barrels and steamer A. B. Nickerson 100 barrels, all fresh.

The netting fleet off here did well yesterday landing about 225 barrels fresh mackerel at the Fort, selling at 8 and 5 cents apiece for large and mediums.

At Boston today fresh mackerel are selling for 10 and 7 cents each for large and mediums.

Sch. Mertis H. Perry is at Boston today with 1400 fresh mackerel and sch. Lillian with 2000.

The fare of Sch. Kentucky sold to the Gloucester Mackerel Company for a lump sum, the amount being better than a quotation of $15 per barrel.

Advices from our correspondents at New Bedford and Newport, R. I., report that a gale of wind is blowing in that locality.

The boats at Provincetown report some fish schooling off there.

Five hundred and sixty-one barrels of Irish mackerel are in transit for Philadelphia, most of them for S. H. Levin & Co.
